Villa Quardia is a 3 bedroom 3 bathroom hidden gem majestically situated on a stunning hillside in peaceful countryside, offering panoramic unspoilt views of mountains, valley and sea. The villa has no immediate neighbours and the pool and poolside cannot be overlooked, so it's an ideal spot for an all over tan and complete relaxation.

The comfortable interiors are stylishly decorated with quality furnishings and finishes providing a light, informal ambience. To keep in touch with the outside world Wi-Fi internet access is provided. Mosquito screening is provided at all windows, and is practical for letting the cool mountain air in, without insects.

The beautiful stone property blends naturally with its surroundings and benefits from a superb location in Pano Akourdaleia, named Quardia in ancient times, a quaint and traditional village, full of character, and just waiting to be explored.

This area has stunning scenery. The sea view is Polis, about 20 minutes' drive. Akamas National Park with its 2 beautiful soft sand beaches at Lara Bay, and wild unspoilt interior famed for its flora and fauna is 20 mins in the other direction. And of course, the blue flag beaches of Coral Bay and Latchi beaches are just a short drive away.

At night time the stars' sparkle like diamonds, as there is no light pollution here.

The local hotel serving food and drinks and the café opposite are 500m. The villa is just 5 minutes' drive uphill to local tavernas, bars and shops in Kathikas village. Clients' favourite taverns here include Yiannis, To Stekki Tou Panai and more formal Imogen's Inn. Miliou village is downhill from the villa and has 2 good tavernas too.

The excellent Villa Quardia owners Dinos and Vicky live nearby and are available if needed, and only visit on request. They can also advise when the pool man will visit, as they appreciate clients booking Villa Quardia like to be private. Their understanding of this, and their subtle and thoughtful approach to our clients is much appreciated, resulting in client relaxation and many repeat bookings.

Paphos, Polis & Coral Bay provide banks, restaurants, shops and supermarkets.

We offer lower rates for 2 persons, when dates fit well. Ignore the higher rate when booking.

LOCAL AREA

One of the first things you notice here is how quiet it is. And the views! Whatever direction you drive in, there are far reaching stunning views of natural beauty, including from the villa. Akourdaleia is quietly situated in rural rolling hills between historic Paphos with its daily market, interesting shops and beaches, and Polis, with its miles of undeveloped sand and pebble coastline.

Blue flag beaches Coral Bay and Corallia are easily accessed at 13km via Kathikas shortcut road E709, same distance to Latchi, where hidden undeveloped beaches and coves can be found (between Latchi and Baths of Aphrodite).

Latchi is also reached via Kathikas shortcut road E709, where, if you can drag yourself away from the excellent taverns, Kathikas (up the hill) and Miliou (down the hill), which all receive great reviews on Trip Advisor, you can sample the freshest fish next to the sea. Kathikas taverns include To Stekki tou Panai run by our friend Maria, Yiannis Tavern with live music and dancing and Imogen's Inn. Down in Miliou village you can find Petroula Christodoulou tavern, name looks like "KaGevelov" and Pagkratios tavern, both popular with walkers.

Akourdaleia has a lovely herb garden which is worth a visit and a coffee, and look out for the Herb Garden Farmer's Market where local growers, brewers and bakers have an opportunity to sell their quality, natural, local and homemade goods to the public. There is a new café just opened in 2017 in the village opposite the hotel.

This area offers the perfect environment for grape growing (clean air, lots of sunshine and no humidity) and our clients really appreciate this air too, especially when returning from the coast, where humidity can be high. Many local wineries offer free wine tasting. Kolios and Vouni wineries slightly further afield are a favourite with clients, as they also offer pre-bookable food, and we highly recommend a visit. For Kolios you may like to ask Nicole your Rep. to book you a window table, as again, the views across the valley are beautiful. It is also a very pretty drive via Stroumbi towards Panagia.

There are many walking trails locally and rare birds frequent the area. Trakkos taverna/bar (just outside Kathikas village overlooking the gorge, fabulous views) offers donkey rides. The beautiful Avakas gorge (for rambling) and photographs, is 12km.

Up in larger Kathikas, between 10th and 17th of August they have the annual Village Festival and at Easter time there are traditional activities there too.

I will send you lots more information on Cyprus before you go.
